Advisory Notice

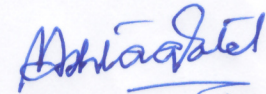

Dear boarders,

It is hereby informed that the Semester examinations are being held soon, and the Hostel and Mess will be closed immediately after the examinations.

It is noticed that the COVID cases are reported among the University students, which was seriously examined by the University COVID Committee. Hence, all the boarders are informed to take necessary precautionary measures and strictly follow COVID-19 guidelines to curb the spread of corona virus and other seasonal viral diseases. Further, it is directed that social and physical distance be strictly maintained by avoiding unnecessary gathering. The boarders of the hostel should avoid meeting outsiders and vice-versa unless there is urgent and essential, for their safety and safety of others. All the boarders should wear face mask when coming out of their room and produce vaccination details marked by the office on their ids whenever asked. It is suggested to avoid going out of the Campus unnecessarily.

All the boarders are requested to pay the pending mess dues by 7th July, 2022 (Thursday) otherwise their hall tickets will be withheld as notified earlier.

Boarders are responsible for safety and security of their belongings and do not allow strangers in their rooms. Further, the boarders are also directed to clear their hostel dues and carry their belongings while vacating the hostels during the hostel closure.
